Senior Class Prophecy

Who could say that there were no signs of success in the hearts and minds of those 1956 Seniors of "good ole Grifton High?"

While preparing for my vacation I decided to look up some of my old classmates. I am, incidently, Marlene Dudley, now teaching commercial courses in New Orleans, Louisiana.

I thought that one day I would travel back to Grifton. As I stopped by the big Westinghouse Plant in Raleigh I found that Charles Dail is owner. Joyce Koon is leading the staff forward as executive secretary.

After having my hair set by a beautician, Bette McCotter, who has introduced one of the most famous hair-styles in America, I decided to stop by the school. Much to my amazement, Herbert Purser is principal. Billy Cox is hired for the next school term as a teacher of Mathematics. The all famous coach of the Grifton Bulldogs is none other than Jimmy Burbage who has "all wins" and "no losses." Good work! Did you know that Mrs. Bunch is still saying "Get quiet, children?"

Among those in the medical field at Grifton is Fred Taylor, leading pharmacist, who has discovered a leading patent medicine. Gathered in the drug store were Lawrence Causey, President of the Agriculture Association and Kenneth Garris, who is a vocational agriculture teacher.

Visiting some relatives in CAMP LEJEUNE I saw Lieutenant Alfred Boswell conversing with Lonnie, now a jet pilot.

Of course, I drove out to the country. Frances Cannon is happily married and Jean Stokes has quit her job to become a housekeeper, also. Nell Jackson is employed in her husband's business firm, "Jackson's Merchandise." Good luck, girls!

My! My! What beautiful nurses, Dawn Smith, Joyce Batchelor, and Alice Cannon-- Will the patients ever get over this? They are the best!

Members of the Dupont Staff are: Linwood Branch, foreman; Eugene Garris; and Carroll Grey, who is traveling around demonstrating Dupont products. Bob McCotter is drawing the blueprints to enlarge the plant. (Bob, keep your mind on your work).

Hearing that Pat Stokes has entered a field in religious education is wonderful. Will she always be the same girl?

It is with regret that Uncle Sam summoned Earl Braxton, Robert Reaves, Harvey Harris and Alton Stancill, especially Alton, who hated to part with his Ford.

.....and now in 1966, as I look over these past ten years, I marvel at the success and happiness of these Seniors of 1956.

Prophetess

History

On a bright sunny morning in August of 1952 we, the 1956 Seniors of G.H.S. began our high school career. All of us were green freshmen, we admit, but under the guidance of Mrs. Paul Braxton, our homeroom teacher, Mr. Tyson, our principal and all the other faculty members we pulled through. To further help us make decisions we elected Marlene Dudley, class president, Charles Dail, vice-president and Pat Stokes, secretary and treasurer. As basketball season rolled around we sent many class members to aid the team. Boy! Were we proud when some of us received uniforms. Time passed quickly and soon it was Spring and almost time for school to be out. As is the custom, we had a hay-ride followed by a weiner roast at the Charles Street Park in Greenville. At commencement we were represented by marshals-Marlene Dudley and Bette McCotter.

Summer vacation was short and soon we were slaving away again. This time we were "silly" sophomores. Led by Charles Dail, our president, Mr. Brown, our adviser and our brand new principal, Mr. Bright, we faced the new year. Shortly after school started, we were all sad to see Violet Potter move away.

The basket-ball teams included three sophomores on the starting line-up--Dawn Smith, Joyce Koon, and Linwood Branch.

We were still proud of our same marshals. These two girls also received additional recognition - Bette, for having the highest scholastic average and Marlene, by receiving the Home Economics Award.

The following year they called us "jolly" juniors and that was just what we were. I'm sure none of us will ever forget Mr. Underwood, our adviser. Our first major business venture was the Junior Play. With the proceeds we dreamed of the day when we would journey to New York. The play was a three act comedy, "If Mother Only Knew." Our Prom was a masterpiece of workmanship, every senior will admit. We did away with the record player and gave the seniors a "real live" dance band. Our theme "Moonlight and Roses" was very effective. Among the honors which were to come to members of our class, Pat Stokes and Fred Taylor received the medals for the Best-all-Round boy and girl. We were all very proud of our chief-marshal, Bette McCotter as she led the seniors down the aisle because we knew that next year someone would do the same for us.

It hardly seems possible but here we are at last "dignified" Seniors. On us fell the responsibility and pride of carrying on the annual. Our staff led by the capable Marlene Dudley and Pat Stokes did a wonderful job. Meantime our class led by Fred Taylor, president and Mrs. Annie Mae Bunch, adviser, increased our treasury by holding bake sales and managing the school store.

"Love and Marriage," a tune from the hit parade came to be a part of our class motto as Nell McGlohon became Mrs. William Douglas "Bill" Jackson, Bob McCotter made Faye McGlohon his bride and Mary Frances Bryan became Mrs. Cannon.

New York, here we come. The banquet is over and we have received our diplomas. Many a sigh of relief and an occasional tear is visible in the eye of parents, teachers, and Seniors.

This history is only a brief four-year period of our lives. We hope that if we write a history in the future it will hold as many cherished memories as these four years do. As we close this chapter of our lives may we look forward to achieving our highest ambition.

Our

Senior - Senior School Has Banquet

GRIPTON — The annual Junior-Senior banquet took place on Friday evening at 7:30 in the high school cafeteria. The theme used in the decorations, menu and program was Moon Light and Roses.

As the guests arrived they found themselves in a garden scene which was complete with moon, wishing well and roses. The central table was centered with a bowl of red roses which is the class flower and at each end of the table silver candelabra with dark blue candles. Auxiliary tables held lighted candles and miniature vases of garden flowers which were given as favors.

A three course turkey dinner was enjoyed by the seventy juniors, seniors, faculty members and special guests who were members of the school board, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. John Coward, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic L. Cox and Mrs. E. W. Fleming. Mr. and Mrs. Alton Gauchner, Pat Stokes was toastmistress for the evening.

The invocation was said by Mr. E. B. Knight, principal. Charles Dail gave "Remembrance in Roses" while Junior Craft paid tribute to the Senior and Faculty in "Orchids to Beams." In Smiles and Moonlight the Principal Bright recognized the guest and as a concluding tribute Argent Tucker gave "Shadows in the Moonlight."

Following the banquet dancing was enjoyed in the school gym where a lovely in decorative blue and silver and other spring flowers made it seem like a fairy land. Music was made by the Fred Orches-tra from Greenville. Around eighty-five young people were invited to this event. Mr. J. T. Underwood is in charge of the arrangements of the banquet and dance.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1956, Grifton High School, do hereby state this our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I: To Mr. Bright, we wish to express our sincere gratitude for his most able guidance throughout our Senior year.

ARTICLE II: To the Faculty members, we leave our deepest appreciation for their patience toward us.

ARTICLE III: Our individual bequests are as follows:

- I, Pat Stokes, leave my ability to make errors in typing to Patsy Burney.
- I, Joyce Koon, leave my attraction for tall men to Pat Buck.
- I, Harvey Harris, leave my curly hair to June Haddock.
- I, Eugene Garris, the fact that I am leaving is enough.
- I, Bette McCotter, leave my B's, C's, and D's on conduct to Gladys Smith, although she seems to be doing fine on her own.
- I, Fred Taylor, leave some of my ambitious ways to Ronnie Stallings.
- I, Herbert Purser, since I must take all my ambition, etc, with me in order to pass at Carolina, I'll just leave my reputation of intelligence to G.H.S. in hopes that some underclassmen will take after me-----Gulp.
- I, Marlene Dudley, leave my sophisticated ways to Phyllis Dudley and hope that she will take advantage.
- I, Alice Cannon, leave my low-toned voice to Judy Hart--now maybe someone else can get a word in!
- I, Billy Cox, leave my ability to work Algebra to Nancy Smith.
- I, Charles Dail, leave my talent for walking quietly to Roy Garris.
- I, Carroll Gray, leave my ability to skip school without getting caught to Pete Adams.
- I, Dawn Smith, leave my love for "Dragnet" to Barbara Taylor. Now Barbara, maybe you can learn to keep yourself out of so much trouble.
- I, Lonnie Jackson, leave my ability to pass English to Jimmy McLawhorn.
- I, Alton Stancill, leave my ability to sit in on class and learn absolutely nothing to Wayne Ervin.
- I, Bob McCotter, leave my ability to drive a car to Wayne Ervin and hope he will be as lucky as I.
- I, Lawrence Causey, leave my ability to "get along famously with girls."
- I, Robert Reaves, leave my ability to drive a school bus to Billy Reaves.
- I, Earl Braxton, leave my ability to sing to James Lynn.
- I, Linwood Branch, leave my popularity with A.H.S. girls to J. C. Adams.
- I, Frances Cannon, leave my quiet ways to Shirley Coward.
- I, Jean Stokes, leave my "love" for school to Mac Chauncey. Maybe you'll be happier now, Mac.
- I, Alfred Boswell, leave my way with the women to Donald Bennett.
- I, Kenneth Garris, leave my willing ways and wonderful personality to Curtis Butler.
- I, Jimmy Burbage, leave my ability to be a smart-aleck to David Jackson.
- I, Joyce Batchelor, leave my sweet disposition to Peggy Jackson.

AN ELEVEN-LETTER WORD

Opportunity built America--the opportunity to try your hand at anything; the opportunity to attend the college of your choice; the opportunity to start a business; the opportunity to select the company with which you wish to work.

Yes, America has been, and will continue to be, a land of opportunity. High School graduation opens the door to that eleven-letter word--opportunity. We feel sure the class of 1956 will take advantage of every opportunity to see that America grows bigger, better and greater than ever before.
